Hexham Book Festival

This week the whole school went to Hexham Book festival. Class 2 watched the Secret Garden in the Spiegel tent. They really enjoyed it and are using what they saw to help with their own writing of playscripts.

Class 1 went to see the author, Rachel Morrisroe. She has written a fantastic book called Drama Llam, that is all about dealing with your worries by talking to someone.

After the festival we had a picnic and a great play in the park at Tyne Green. It was lovely listening to the children talk about what they had seen in Hexham and watching them play so beautifully together– lots of laughter!

Partnership Sports

This week Class 1 went to Bellingham Primary School to take part in a multiskills workshop with lots of other local schools.

Mrs Ewen and Hazel were very impressed with how well the children did –some great technique, especially in howler throwing!
